CRTV 120 Media Aesthetics

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to distinguish between attached shadows that influence perception of shape and texture and cast shadows that articulate distance from a surface or other objects.

2. Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to distinguish how volume of light, distance, color spill, and mixed color temperature can compromise the accurate appearance of color.