

Emergency Response

Please take note of the safety features in and close to the classroom, and study the posted evacuation route. The most direct route of egress may not be the safest because of the existence of roofing tiles or other potentially hazardous conditions. Similarly, running out of the building can be dangerous during severe earthquakes. During strong quakes the recommended response is to duck, cover and hold until the shaking stops. Follow the guidance of your instructor. You are asked to go to the designated assembly area. Your cooperation during emergencies can minimize the possibility of injury to yourself and to others.

The Writing Center's mission is to promote students' success and independence as writers in College and beyond. They strive to provide an environment that is conducive to writing and learning and to serve as a model for peer interaction. They help writers make their own choices about a text rather than "fixing" papers for them. They do not write on students' papers; they counsel students about the choices they have as writers.

Tutors impart encouragement, inspiration, motivation and confidence to students enabling them to keep a positive attitude and succeed in their courses. The Center's goal is for students to become independent learners with an interest in lifelong learning.
